

LOOKING FOR LIFESTYLE?

Head To A Small Town

Demographer Bernard Salt recently wrote in the Weekend Australian about finding the best place to live in Australia. Small towns are the best for lifestyle and Kureelpa received a notable mention! Ideal towns have around 1000 residents, easy access to a small supermarket, primary school, a few shops, petrol station and a range of sporting facilities. People value proximity to a major regional city, a tree change or sea change environment and a safe community. Several of our Hinterland towns tick these boxes and that's why we are seeing more people considering our community as the ideal lifestyle choice.
